SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21. 1738.

№ 1038.

From the New England Weekly Journal, dated Aug 29.

New York, Aug. 21.

LAST Saturday Night three Negro Men got a Canoe to go into the Country and be merry with ſome others on Sunday, and going through Hell Gate they were ſuck'd into the Pot or Whirlpool, the Canoe drawn in, and Alderman Banker's Negro (the Fidler) drowned, the other two ſaved themſelves by ſwimming to the Shore.

St. George's River, Aug. 14. The 10th of this Inſt. died here Thomas White, Eſq; who was a Gentleman of a ſweet and obliging Temper; had a quick Wit, a ſound Judgment, and a ready Utterance; and his Sentiments of Things very ſeldom, if ever, failed: He was peculiar in Modeſty, and ever manifeſted that he excell'd by the Nobility of his Deportment, which ſhone illuſtrious: He was facetious in his Behaviour, and informing in his Converſation; and always endeavoured to create Peace, and a Chriſtian Charity among his Neighbours. He came out of the Kingdom of Ireland, and ſo diſtinguiſhed himſelf here, that he was deſervedly recommended to, and honoured with a Commiſſion for the Peace from his Excellency our Governor; and as he wore it with Loyalty, ſo he executed it with Skill and Equity: And in the 49th Year of his Age, after ſome Months Indiſpoſition, truſting in the Merits of a bleſſed Redeemer, he calmly reſigned up his Spirit to the Diſpoſal of Almighty God.

Boſton, Aug. 29. Yeſterday, by Order of his Excellency the Governor, was celebrated the Birth of his Royal Highneſs Prince George-William-Frederick, only Son to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, born the 24th of May laſt: At Twelve the Guns were diſcharged at his Majeſty's Caſtle William, from which his Majeſty's Ship the Squirrel carried on the Firing, and from her it was continued by a great Number of Merchants Ships in the Harbour; at Five in the Afternoon his Excellency took a Review of the Regiment of this Town drawn up on the Common, under the Command of Colonel Wirſlow, which made a fine Appearance of upwards of Fourteen Hundred Men in Arms; from thence his Excellency went into King-ſtreet, and from the Balcony of the Honourable Anthony Stoddard Eſq'rs. Houſe, received the Marching Salute from Colonel Hatch at the Head of ſix Troops of Horſe, and the ſame from Colonel Wirſlow and his Officers, and after their making three handſome Firings, the Horſe and Foot were diſmiſſed. The Town Houſe was handſomely illuminated, and Proviſion made in the Council Chamber for his Excellency, for his Majeſty's Council, and for all the Officers of the Town, Civil and Military; where was drank his Majeſty's Health, the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, the new-born Prince, Sir Robert Walpole, the Duke of Newcaſtle, &c. His Excellency's Houſe was moſt beautifully illuminated, and his Excellency gave an elegant Ball at Mrs. Auſtin's Long Room, to a great Number of the principal Gentlemen and Ladies of the Town, on this happy and joyful Occaſion.

We are inform'd by a Veſſel lately arrived from the Bay of Honduras, that the Spaniards had taken all the Flatts, and one Sloop, coming from the New River laden with Wood, for a Ship belonging to Boſton, which was waiting at the old River to take it in: They alſo took a Sloop belonging to Jamaica. The Maſter of the Boſton Ship, viz. Capt. Edward Buckley of this Town, having Intelligence of it, immediately got a Sloop, and with ſome of his Men went directly after the Spaniards, retook the Flatts and both the Sloops, and gave Liberty to Twenty-five Engliſh Sailors whom Mr. Jack Spaniard had taken Priſoners, and having taken the Spaniard Priſoners, they made them Row them up and down where they thought proper to command; after which the Captain being a Man of Humanity, he choſe rather to maroon them, than to hide them according to the Moſceto Faſhion. Not long after, they had Impudence enough to block up the Mouth of the New River with two Perriaugers, in order to hinder the Paſſage of our Flatts; but the Engliſh Captain ſoon diſappointed their Purpoſe, by going up with ſome of his Hands, and with little or no Difficulty, took the two Perriaugers, and maroon'd the Crews. Not long after, the famous Rigidore, who has ply'd in the Bay, and done ſo much Damage to the Engliſh, having been inform'd what had happen'd to the Spaniards, wrote a Letter to the Captain of the Engliſh Ship, importing, That he reſented very much the ill Uſage wherewith he had treated the Spaniards, and that he would ſoon be avenged of him, and have full Satisfaction for the Abuſe he had given the Subjects of his Catholick Majeſty, and inſiſted upon an Anſwer; the Captain communicated this Letter to his Men, who all with one Voice cry'd out, Let us go and give him an Anſwer by Word of Mouth; which was immediately agreed upon, but there had like to have happen'd a Quarrel, who ſhould keep the Ship, ſo earneſt were they to go; however the Captain took 40 brave Fellows along with him in a Sloop, and went to the Place where this famous Don was; which was in a Cove where he had hawl'd his Veſſel, and ſet up eight Tents on Shore for his Men, which made a very beautiful Appearance; he planted his Swivel Guns, and a large Cow-Horn on the Shore, where they were obliged to Land; and upon their coming near, did not fail to fire upon the Sloop with all their Power; but the Engliſh Captain finding himſelf near enough fired his Carriage Guns, Swivels, and ſmall Arms, landed his Men under the Cover of his Guns, which the Spaniards ſeeing, immediately retired into the Buſhes, but there was no Pains ſpared to ſcale the Buſhes in the beſt Manner, which was ſo effectually done, with their own Swivels and our Small Arms, that no Spaniard was ſeen any more for that Time. The Tents and Baggage of Courſe, fell into the Engliſhmen's Hands; and 'tis not likely that they left the Veſſel there for the Spaniards to come off in. If all the Engliſh Maſters would thus exert themſelves, we ſhould not ſo often hear of Veſſels being taken, for it is plain that they are poultron cowardly Raſcals; for, notwithſtanding this famous Don inſiſted upon an Anſwer to his Letter from the Engliſh Captain, and that he was ſo Complaiſant as to carry it himſelf, he choſe rather to forfeit his Tents and Baggage, and bear the Loſs of his Navigation, than to ſtay to receive it in Manner and Form, as all Men of Honour and Courage would have done.

LONDON.

The great Reſort of People to the Coffee-houſe in Lombard-ſtreet, to ſee that Angolian Savage, call'd Chimpanzee, has rais'd our Curioſity to dip into the Hiſtory of that Country, where we find the following Account of a Satyr, which ſeems to be a Creature of the ſame Species with the Chimpanzee, tho' it paſſes in the Country under the Name of Quoja Morron. We ſhall here add the Deſcription of it, that thoſe who have ſeen the one, may be the better able to judge of its Reſemblance with the other.

'Tis ſo much like a Man (ſays Mr. Dapper, who has given us the Hiſtory of this Country and its Product) that many think it deſcended from a Man and an Ape; but the Negroes themſelves don't think ſo. In the laſt Century, one of theſe Creatures, a Female, was brought to Holland and preſented to Prince Frederic Henry. 'Twas as big as a Child of 3 Years old, but twice as thick, well ſet, ſtrong and nimble; for it lifted up Things of a great Weight, and carried them from one Place to another. Her Breaſt and Belly was bald but her Back cover'd with black Hair. Her Face was ſomewhat Human, but her Noſe flat and turn'd up. Her Ears, Breaſt and Nipples, Elbows, Legs and Feet, her Belly and Pudenda were altogether like a Woman's. She often ſtood and walked upright on her two Feet. She drank very neatly, carrying the Cup with one Hand to her Mouth, and ſupporting it with the other. She alſo lay down to ſleep with her Head upon a Bolſter, and ſpread the Coverlet over her, as if ſhe had been a Human Creature. Our Author ſuppoſes this to be the Satyr ſo often mentioned by Hearſay among the ancient Poets, and that 'tis of the ſame Species with the Satyrs on the Coaſt of Guiney, that the Portugueſe call Savages, which have large Heads, thick, heavy Bodies, nervous Arms, no Tails, walk ſometimes upright, and at other Times on All-fours; and which feed on Fruit and wild Honey, fight continually with one another, dare attack an armed Man, and force Women.

They write from Cheſter, that Yeſterday ſe'nnight came on the Election of a Mayor and Sheriffs of that City, when Mr. Nathan Wright, Ironmonger, was choſe Mayor, and Mr. John Dicas, Perriwigmaker, and Mr. John Snow, Dyer, Sheriffs, without Oppoſition.

The Day before died at York, after 4 Days Illneſs, of an Impoſtume in his Throat, Mr. Richard Manclin, an eminent Bookſeller of that City, by whoſe Death a conſiderable Fortune goes to his Siſter.

The French Players, who have been ſo much the Subject of Converſation, had not, when they attempted to act, nor have they ſince had any Licence or publick Authority whatſoever, to allow them the Privilege of Acting, as we are very well informed.

Yeſterday Orders were iſſued out from the Lord Chamberlain's Office to the Peers, Peereſſes, and Privy Counſellors, that the Court will be out of Mourning on Monday the 30th Inſtant, for that Day, it being his Majeſty's Birth-day.

Yeſterday being Eſſoign Day before Michaelmas Term, the ſeveral Courts in Weſtminſter Hall were opened, viz. the Court of King's Bench by Mr. Juſtice Chapple; the Court of Common Pleas by Mr. Juſtice Forteſcue Aland, and the Court of Exchequer by Mr. Baron Clive, Cuſtos or Baron of the ſaid Court.

To-morrow being the Birth-day of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange, who then enters into the 30th Year of her Age, his Majeſty will receive the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction on that Occaſion.

On Tueſday next the Lords and others, Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Chelſea College, will meet at the General Officers Room at the Horſe Guards, Whitehall, in order to examine the ſeveral ſuperannuated Invalids worn out in the Service of the Crown, and who are recommended to the Penſion of that College.

Laſt Sunday died in an advanced Age at the Bath, John Cliffard, of Golden Grove in Carmarthenſhire, Eſq; formerly High Sheriff for the ſaid County.

Yeſterday Morning Daniel Grey of Bedford, Eſq; a near Relation to the Right Hon. the Earl of Stamford, was married at Harrow on the Hill to Mrs. Coats, Relict of Capt. Coats, who was Capt. in the Regiment of Horſe commanded by General Wade.

Thurſday laſt about Four in the Afternoon, John Lane, Eſq; with his Lady and Son, going to Wimbleton in Surry, was attacked on Putney Common by a ſingle a ſingle Highwayman, who made them come out of the Coach, and bid Mr. Lane throw his Sword into the Fuzzes, which being done, he robbed them of their Money, Watches, &c. and rode off undiſcover'd acroſs the Common towards the Bowling-Green Houſe.

Yeſterday the ſecond and third Regiments of Foot Guards were muſter'd on the Parade in St. James's Park, by Sir Anthony Weſtcombe, Bart.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Tankerville lay ſo dangerouſly ill that his Life was deſpaired of.

The ſame Day the Lady Lucy Warton, Siſter to the late Duke of Warton, lay at the Point of Death with the Small Pox.

A curious fine Grotto is juſt finiſhed at St. Mary-le-Bone by Mr. Caſtle, the Gentleman who preſented his Majeſty with his Arms in Shell-Work, and who made the Grotto in the Garden belonging to Sir Robert Walpole at Chelſea.

The Rev. Mr. Young, M. A. is preſented to the Vicarage of Ampleſorth, in the County and Dioceſe of York, void by the Death of the Rev. Mr. Mills.

The Letter ſign'd Sam. Export, is come to Hand, and will be inſerted on Monday next.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have uſed it, for its tranſcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the moſt exquiſite Perfection poſſible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpreſſible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a ſurpriſing Handſomneſs to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly ſmooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can ſooner or more certainly take away all diſagreeable Redneſs, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughneſs, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Diſcolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles ſo perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become ſo incomparably fine, clear, plump, ſoft, and beautifully fair, as to cauſe Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a moſt engaging reſplendent Brightneſs to the whole Countenance, and cauſes ſparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairneſs, Smoothneſs, and moſt charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFYER prepared from the leaſt Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmleſs and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has alſo a pleaſant Scent, will not ſoil the fineſt Lawn, and is very agreeable to uſe.

But theſe its admirable Properties, by which it vaſtly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpoſe, have occaſioned many to imitate it under various other Names, beware therefore of ſuch Impoſitions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given ſuch univerſal Satisfaction to ſo many Ladies of Diſtinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where elſe in England.
